Broken, incomplete, destructive, wounded, and empty are some of the words that describe men who have not dealt with the pains of their past. Separated from his biological mother at the age of three, Timothy grew up wounded and hungering for a relationship with the woman he felt left him, and the absentee father whom he never knew; all the while wearing the mask of appearing whole. To the outsider he was the young man with everything going for him, intact and complete; looking as if he were living a normal and fulfilled life. He struggled to keep all of the pieces of his broken heart together while growing up in a group home and two foster homes. Everything in his life changed when this young boy, fell in love with his God. The God of his testimony and salvation saw his brokenness and unequipped mindset and transformed him over time to a renewed life and sense of anointed purpose. Along this journey, God revealed how His allowing of brokenness made for an exceptional spiritual experience and the 'rebuilding' of a man to wholeness in 8 steps. This read is not for the faint at heart nor purpose; and is sure to inspire those who have yet to be drawn to the ultimate relationship of their birthright so that they too may achieve wholeness, despite their past. Join Timothy on his journey of 8 Steps to Wholeness in a completely revealing and transparent account of where he started, and how he became the man of God he is today.
