Crash - Part Four Miranda Dawson

You've spent the whole series waiting for this...

A shocking revelation propels Emily and Carter headlong into a series of events that will change not just their lives, but everyone else's, forever. Now that the truth is out, the battle against PharmaTech begins in earnest, and that means putting everything on the line.

With the memory of her brother still weighing on her heart, nothing could be as important for Emily as this—except for Carter, who has changed her life and made her whole in ways she was never expecting.

When his future is threatened as a result of her actions, she must make a choice to set him free or keep him for herself, despite the consequences. Can she be so selfish, or will she sacrifice her happiness to ensure his own?

One final truth will be revealed. But will it be enough to save them?
