An African American family becomes a new kind of pioneer

Leaving behind Big Mama, loving relatives, and the familiar red soil and cotton fields of Alabama, Jessie and her family are going north to Nebraska. They are pioneers searching for a better life, one with decent schools and jobs. But traveling through the segregated South is difficult for an African American family in the 1960s. With most public places reserved for "whites only," where will they stop to get gas and food?

Lyrical free verse and evocative paintings capture the rhythm of the road and a young girl's longing as she wonders: Will I like it there? Will I like the North?

Chrissy Stallings:

As a student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library in order to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's spirit or real their passion. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Going North (Bccb Blue Ribbon Picture Book Awards (Awards)) can make you experience more interested to read.
