Las cosas que perdimos en el fuego (Spanish Edition) Mariana Enriquez

Mujeres que se prenden fuego en protesta por la violencia domestica, adolescentes angustiados, amigos hasta que la muerte los separe, ninos de la calle y trabajadores sociales, mujeres jovenes aburridas de sus parejas, magia negra, supersticion en el norte de Argentina, desapariciones. Doce relatos que podrian ser un mix siglo XXI de Realismo Sucio, Edgar Allan Poe, Julio Cortazar y Shirley Jackson, en una Buenos Aires salvajemente visceral. Una obra que es clasica y contemporanea a la vez, ferozmente original, feminista y anti-feminista, politica, perversa, oscura, divertida, de un atrevimiento que puede decirlo todo. / Women who set themselves on fire to protest against domestic violence, distressed teenagers, friends till death do them apart, street children, young women bored with their partners, black magic, and superstition in northern Argentina. A work that is classic and contemporary at once.
