Boardroom Conspiracies: A Courtroom Drama Frank Warren Swacker

Boardroom Conspiracies is a Wall Street murder mystery and an exciting courtroom drama of greed. The author guides you through the trial from a front row seat in a New York City courtroom. Issues from today's headlines: insider trading and corporate greed, form the sinews of this exciting combination of courtroom drama and thrilling murder mystery. Allegations of malfeasance by former corporate directors during a shareholders civil trial vie with tales of murder and infidelity in this modern day Philadelphia tale of greed and retribution. Corporate directors are accused not only of civil crimes; but of the, seemingly, related murder of the board chairman. Was he murdered on board a cruise ship? Was he murdered to prevent him from making a deal with authorities at the expense of his colleagues? Or, were there more intimate and personal influences at work/ A diverse jury deliberates. Each member weighs the evidence, bringing their unique perspectives to the deliberations. The author leads you through this tale of intrigue and murder to an exciting resolution of the legal drama and a surprising solution to the murder mystery. About the Author: Born May 18, 1922 in Manhattan, the author Frank Warren Swacker is a second generation Wall Street lawyer.
