Inspired by the all-too often and unfortunate gun violence taking the lives of so many innocent victims. Jim Lisette suffers a similar indescribable loss. The police are unable to solve the crime so Jim sets out to discover the perpetrators on his own. He finds them and one by one exacts his revenge. From his hometown in Pennsylvania to the jungles of Columbia, Lisette eliminates all that he considers responsible for his loss. He then returns to the States to be tried for his crimes but he uses the "broken" legal system to turn the trial into a socio/political platform. Lisette poses difficult questions for the jury and for the reader as well.
