In Autumn 1982 a single came out called 'Do You Really Want To Hurt Me?' The group that made it was Culture Club, and their singer was the extraordinary Boy George. Colourful, unpredictable, amazing and, above all, great entertainers, Boy George and Culture Club have leapt from nowhere to international stardom in 18 months, spawning look-alikes from Los Angeles to London. Lavishly illustrated with a wealth of photographs, fashion and make-up drawings, 'Mad About The Boy' tells the whole story of a truly original group which has conquered the hearts of young and old alike.
