Do you know what your soul purpose is? Have you ever wanted to know the secret to attracting abundance in your relationships, business, health, and your vision for your life? Our soul purpose is just as unique as our fingerprint, and the only way to fulfill this purpose is by identifying what our individual fingerprint looks like. Success is a claim for us all, and finding that success lies in embracing our own authenticity. The moment you do that and accept your soul purpose, you attract abundance in every area of your life. You are called to a purpose, and people will naturally pay you to fulfill your soul purpose as you contribute value to their lives, businesses, and personal development. Abundance is the reward for sharing your natural talents, gifts, expertise, and niche in the marketplace. Melissa Evans, the Guru of Implementation, has helped clients all over the world identify their soul purpose and figure out how to monetize it. In this book you will find out how to not only identify your soul purpose, but also create a plan and monetize it. You'll also take a journey and read powerful success stories of other people who are living out their soul purposes and finding incredible success.
