It's early 2008 and once homeless Andie has come a long way. Now a successful San Francisco software executive, she's being groomed for CEO when her best friend Becks, a liberal, idealistic college professor, offers her a chance to leave the corporate world behind and run a charitable foundation funded by Becks' mega movie star brother. It's a dilemma, but nothing compared to what's just around the corner. Soon, a series of unfortunate events involving the men in their lives will threaten the friends' hard-won reputations, their long-standing bond, and even their lives. As the whole country teeters on the edge of economic meltdown, Andie and Becks must use every trick in their repertoire to save themselves, their families, and maybe even the world.
