The Taken Bride

In this thrilling historical romance, follow the seductive tale of Mary. A timid but beautiful and curvy wife of a prominent landowner, Mary has never known the touch of a man other than her boorish and dispassionate husband. Mary is resigned to a life of objectification and boredom, but all that changes during a fateful trip to an orchard on what she believes to be her husband's land. The sweet fruit pales in comparison to Thomas, the tall, masculine, dark, and mysterious soldier of a fellow landowning aristocrat. Locked in the middle of a land dispute and held captive by this dashing but fearsome soldier of fortune, will Mary's life descend into a chaotic horror, or will she be seduced into an adventure the likes of which she has never imagined? Lose yourself in the historical medieval backdrop of this story as the mundane life of Mary is transformed by this beautiful stranger. She will never be the same.

The Highlander's Taken Bride

Unfortunately, Allia Fonnely, who is the heiress to a kingdom, is used as a bargaining chip in an intense confrontation between a clan of highlanders and a village of fighting brothers. Allia is kidnapped by the highlander group and forced to become the bride to Gerard MacAlister. She is imprisoned for days while the negotiations take place and the future looks grim.

Gerard, the alpha of the bunch, may have other plans on what to do with the Allia, who is not popular among the raiders. But Allia, who is a beautiful young noblewoman, is the most powerful temptation this god among men has ever seen. Highlander and human coupling is forbidden and never sexier than in The Highlander's Ransomed Bride, an erotica romance in the highlander genre. Hold onto your heads because this one gets hot!
