Teach Me, Punish Me Caia Fox

A spicy and romantic short story with a light dominant/submissive theme “Someone should have taught you to be a good girl back then. Maybe they still should.”

Luke Black was a good English teacher but that meant nothing to me ten years ago at my Scottish high school. All that mattered then were his bad boy good looks, and imagining him naked with his arms wrapped around me.

With a successful career in New York behind me, I returned for the ten year class reunion. I had changed, but Mr. Black had not. He still had the power to make my insides melt. And it seemed, there were things he still wanted to teach me...and punish me for.

No man should have been able to turn my world upside down in a weekend. But this one did...and now that he had, how could I bear to part with him?

This sizzling short story of around 12,000 words is unsuitable for children but is just right if you're looking for a hot and romantic bedtime (or anytime) read.
