In this book are stage plays that can be used in the classroom or performed for an audience. The Hysterical History of the Trojan War is based on the classic story of Homer but in a style and language modern kids can enjoy. Other plays are included in the book as well, many with new views on old tales. There is "Gingerbread Girl" that is a twist on the classic Gingerbread Man story with a dash of Frankenstein mixed in. And MadScripts give students a chance to put their own twists in to classic fairy tales.
