If you are a lover of sweet Amish romance, you will delight in this story about Sadie Schwartz. And if you've ever had your heart broken, you'll identify with this sweet girl who struggles to make sense of her own personal tragedy.

After a full year of professing his love, Ezra Ebersol dumps Sadie right before their wedding. Immediately, he becomes engaged to another girl. Sadie's heart is broken, and she reels with her pain and confusion for weeks. Hiding out, she encounters a stranger. Not in the mood for anyone's company, she evades him. But newcomer Joshua Graber isn't so easily dissuaded. When Sadie discovers the real reason for her broken relationship with Ezra, her eyes are opened. Was Joshua sent to help heal her broken heart? Or is he just another person who can't be trusted?

You'll enjoy this sweet romance and cheer for Sadie as she learns that God really does hold her in the palm of His hand.
