**This is a fun STANDALONE WEREBEAR SHORT STORY PREGNANCY ROMANCE with no cliffhangers****

Lois Claire is returning to Alaska, this time with an open mind about the possibility of romance. The memories of past summers in beautiful Barrow are tainted with loss, but the wonders of the arctic sea and the creatures who live there call her to return, their mysteries beckoning. While there may not be a plethora of eligible men in the icy wilderness, her acquaintance with a striking hunter as well as with the son of a multimillionaire provide more intrigue for her love life than she had counted on. The man who will win her heart is ruggedly handsome and carries his muscled frame with the effortless ease of a wild animal, seemingly unaware of his own strength and sheer animal magnetism. But which man will it be? When she gets to know the man who shares her fervor for wildlife, she is thrown into a whirlwind of risking everything to trust him, discovering the truth behind his connection with nature in a way that no one has before. Her head tells her to slow down, to protect herself, but her senses are awakened with desire as she is inexorably drawn to make the choice between caution and exploring the depths of passion and intimacy...
