Teenage slave girl Faru's life has been turned upside down when she discovers she's been traded to a new master, forcing her to leave all she's ever known. Upon her arrival, Faru meets a friend, Cailean, who helps her adjust to life in the strange location. Life settles into a new pattern, and romance blossoms between the young friends. But as soon as they plan to get married, another proposal comes about – one that cannot be ignored. Being a slave means not always marrying who you love. On a daring journey to heal her heart, Faru encounters the Existing One. Will she trust Him and do His bidding even if what He requests is so hard? Follow Faru's tale in author Kandi J Wyatt's retelling of a Biblical story found in the Old Testament book of Genesis, showing that when things don't make sense, God will guide the way.
