Concise Dictionary of American Biography. Hopkins

This dictionary has three types of entries: Minimal gives the places and dates of the subject's birth and death and a statement of his/her outstanding achievements. Median includes all information given in the minimal plus critical comments on the subject's achievement. If an author, the titles and dates of publication of his/her main work was cited. The third entry is Extended entries; the content, style and spirit of the original biographies have been preserved as fully as possible (from Preface to The First Edition).
