Leaders Don't Command Jorge Cuervo

Managers are currently faced with the most uncertain environment in history. How can we lead our teams to create and seize opportunities? How do we navigate through the fog in our brains and the overworked staff sitting in front of us?

The answer is commitment: Put people to work and use your heart and your head to be more creative and flexible. We need more and better leadership!

This acclaimed book, published in Spain, will be available for English-language readers in May 2015. By presenting the information in bite-size chapters and to-do lists, author Jorge Cuervo helps each of us to bring out the best of ourselves in leadership, management, and supervisory roles.
