Accidental Hero: Large Print edition (The Panui Series) Jenny Harrison

No one could have imagined George Ainslie a hero. Heroes are majestic, sublime. They look like Christopher Reeve. George is so bland his own mother wouldn't pick him in a police line-up. Also, he's a bit of a bumbler. Things happen to him through no fault of his own. How did he get to be a hero? George has friends in High Places working hard to keep him out of trouble and not always succeeding. Another in the delightful Panui Series set in small-town New Zealand where the stories are as varied as the characters that live there.
