Sahara Smith is leaving her Texas trailer-park upbringing in the dust to take up a job at the famous Blue Ribbon Ice Cream Company. All her dreams are finally coming true and she's determined to let nothing stand in her way.

But on her first day she meets tall, oh-so-sexy Brandon, the kind of guy Sahara knows would never be interested in a girl like her. So why does he seem so intent on getting to know her?

Sahara's dreams of a better life are finally within her grasp – until she discovers something that could bring the whole lot crashing down around her. But she isn't giving up that easily, not when destiny is calling...
