H.I.M: Homeless in a Mercedes (a true story) (US and THEM) (Volume 1) Richard Arsenault, Eva Javurek Arsenault

An amazing journey into homelessness in sub-tropical Florida while traveling in a newly acquired Mercedes Benz brings unique and compelling insight into the state of American society from acclaimed #1 filmmaker Richard Arsenault and his wife Eva.

Stunning reality spawned from labor whistle blowing at Tyler Perry Studios in Atlanta during a visit from President Obama ironically while he created "The Haves and the Have Nots" & "For Better or Worse" which brought Oprah Winfrey's OWN Network into profitability, Arsenault documents his fight against the Motion Picture Editor's Guild Union, billionaires, authorities, police, the homeless and insane, and meth heads.

Ultimately this book drew documented DDOS (Distributed Denial of Service) attacks from the Russian Mafia, attention from the NSA, major religious organizations, and international labor unions because of the painful truths it uncovers. It proved to be as much of a struggle after publishing as during the dictation phase "as it happened."

Learn about the state of America and shocking truths about infiltration and our "US caste system" on every level of society in these dangerous pre-war times.

"The book is a remarkably uplifting and sarcastically hilarious love story -- if you can call it that! Read it because it will make you cry, it will make you outraged, and it will give you insights into Hollywood and the filmmaking process you simply can't get anywhere else. It appeals to social demographers, film and television geeks, and international spy investigators alike! At close to 700 pages, it is a must-read, can't put down tome! Bravi Eva and Richard!"
