The Bear's Forbidden Mate: A BBW Paranormal Shifter Romance (Shifting Desires Book 3) Lucy Savage

Snowed in with the hot and sexy man who saved her life, what more could a girl ask for?

Gage is trapped as a bear. He can't shift back, and even if he could, he doesn't see much cause to return to his old life. Things are easier and simpler as a bear. He doesn't have to live in constant regret for the mistake he made, and he can almost forget the crippling loneliness of not having a mate.

One night out romping around the forest, Gage spots a woman running from two wolves. He doesn't pause to consider what they want with her, or why's she is so hell bent on getting away. He knows immediately that he must protect her at all costs.

When Gage is finally able to shift back just to speak with her, he senses there is something special about this curvy and beautiful woman. Now he just needs to find a way to tell her the truth. He's a bear shifter, and it turns out, she is his mate.

Natalie barely escaped from her werewolf captors in one piece. Now she has to contend with freezing temperatures and a wild bear hot on her tail. When she stumbles across the tiny, abandoned cabin, it's the first piece of good luck she's had in a long time.

But when the owner of the cabin returns just as a huge, winter storm rolls in, she finds herself in close quarters with a man she barely knows. Natalie doesn't question why she is so drawn to him. The mutual attraction they share might be a nice, temporary distraction, but it can't last.

The wolves who enslaved her will be back, and she won't risk the life of an innocent man by sticking around. Natalie knows she must disappear as soon as the storm lets up.

When Gage wakes up the next morning to find Natalie gone, he knows instinctively she is in trouble. Can he reach her in time to save her from the wolves? How will she react when she finally learns there is more to him than meets the eye?

Can Natalie learn to trust, and possibly love, a bear shifter?

This standalone story includes a happily ever after and no cliffhanger!
