"We Own the Night" is the sequel novel to "The Writing of the Wrong." The enemy has now become domestic as Joshua is informed that his friend Detective Gene Shroud has been killed in a gang shootout. The giant awakens immediately and seeks revenge from the leader of the gang PFM. He captures PFM and almost wipes out his entire gang as the giant brings PFM to justice but PFM receives another kind of sentence; not to prison but to help Joshua put an end to gang violence once and for all. Joshua soon discovers that the gang problem has its roots in some old enemies and as he and PFM investigate these roots, violence once again erupts to include the man that has been stalking Joshua since the Vietnam War - The Dragon. Unable to conceal his identity any longer from the giant, The Dragon is finally hunted down and confronted on a Caribbean island...and The Dragon throws down the gauntlet in the form of a riddle, which the giant easy interprets. Through the darkest caverns of the mind; deep into the blackest of nights, the race is on. The question remains; who will win the race - the giant or The Dragon? Who owns the night?
