My first collection, A Sample of Me, is all about love and what's defined by that emotion: how one pursues a relationship and upon finding it, understanding through the trials of life that love is not always unconditional. Nevertheless, the search continues, the hope isn't restricted, but redirected to a welcoming party with mutual aspirations of finding not just a date, but a soul mate. A Sample of Me is not all about a man in love with the love of his life. It's also about a man in love with His God. You see, no man can truly be in love with his wife without knowing true love. So fellas, A Sample of Me is not a sell-out, it's already sold out! You'll catch that on the way home; it's an 'Edgarism' - my way of speaking out in rare form. Explore this book and enjoy a few more Edgarisms as A Sample of Me delivers just a glimpse of what the future holds for readers who enjoy smooth reflections on love, faith, life, and everything in-between!
