Someone has stolen the schematics for billionaire tech mogul Jake Silvar's new weather satellite, and he's convinced it was his former personal assistant, Kameko Saito. After discovering the Asian beauty fled to the Bahamas, Jake arranges to have her located, abducted and brought to his Manhattan headquarters for questioning. Once Kameko is delivered to him, however, he realizes normal tactics aren't going to convince her to talk, and sets out to seduce the truth out of her.

While she didn't steal the satellite schematics, Kameko Saito did make the mistake of falling in love with Jake Silvar. Because her feelings for him compromised her ability to do her real job, she left New York determined to forget him. Now that he's kidnapped her, and believes she's a thief, Kameko knows she can't hold out for long against the dangerous attraction they share. When Jake uses bondage sex to break down her resistance, Kameko confesses – but only to her feelings for him.

When an assassin tries to kill Kameko, Jake saves her life, and she finally admits she is a British intelligence operative. Working together she and Jake quickly expose the traitor inside his organization and recover the schematics. Now all Kameko wants is another chance to be with Jake – this time as his lover. But after all the lies she's told him, will he ever trust her again?
