Southern Cross by Patricia Cornwell - First Edition 1st Printing 1998

This is a police mystery novel with the main characters a lady police chief and her dog, Popeye. It takes the reader on a fast track through history of Richmond, Virginia, from it's founding in 17th century to present day with the corruption so prevalent in today's society, thus, setting up the modern stage for crimes typical of the times. Interesting approach and setting.
