To Orlando with Love Clarissa John

To Orlando with Love is a fictional romance inspired by the author's physical attraction to movie star Orlando Bloom. It begins with the first feelings of a love that keeps growing and growing, no matter how much she tries to avoid it, and continues into the months of difficulties which result as she seeks to know him on a personal level.

To Orlando with Love is organized into three major sections. The first relates the author's life story and her strange connection with this movie star. (Some scenes of "Pirates of the Caribbean: Dead Man's Chest" were filmed on location in the author's hometown.) The second goes deeper into the author's longing for an impossible love. And lastly, the author discusses living without knowing where this love will lead.

Throughout the book, the author gives advice on life based on her own personal experiences, and she encourages everyone to believe in themselves, no matter what the situation or circumstances.
