Brevite: A collection of short fiction Stephen Mustoe

Brevité is a collection of concise, imaginative stories that range widely in focus and spirit, from poignant to upbeat, unsettling to comical. A son struggles to deal with his mentally ill mother's impending death. A teenager survives hilarious yet terrifying adventures in the company of his outrageous uncle. An ailing man considers a series of malaria-induced recollections that might or might not be real. A young woman strains to understand a quirky accident that spared her life. The brief tales in this collection invite the reader to share the author's experiences, emotions, and curiosity.
