People tell Olivia her online beau may actually be helping her fading marriage. The saleswoman she met at an adult toy party claims satisfaction is about the heat, not the source. Olivia's therapist suggests her romantic fantasies could stoke the embers of her twenty-plus-year relationship. Even Olivia's lust interest, Jake, says, "I tell myself I'm good for you." But Olivia knows the only thing getting hotter are her amorous feelings for Jake. He charms her with flirty conversation and reels her in with confessions of his own failing relationship. The more they talk, the more Olivia's thoughts and evenings—which once belonged to her son and husband—are consumed with him. Olivia tells herself it's all harmless since the two of them won't ever meet...until the night they do. That's when Olivia is forced to confront what she wants, what she needs and what she's willing to give up. Tag along with Olivia in this sexy, honest, funny and touching story by Jacy Sutton.
