Clarissa Black had no idea she'd be begging for death before the end of the week. A multi-millionaire and heiress to even more, she's pulled between her faith and her own physical desires as she wrestles with an egotistical playboy who also happens to be a miracle-worker when it comes to childhood cancers. He needs her money. She needs his expertise. Together, they can cure cancer or tear each other apart trying.

Meanwhile, evil from her past promises to drag Clarissa back into the nightmares she faced in her childhood. Despite the threatening notes, letters and phone calls, she hesitates to contact the police as details of her past come back to haunt her. When her ultimate challenge becomes survival, will she give up her promise of love and happily ever after to save those she loves the most?
