Vision House A. M. Williamson C. N. Williamson

"[...]Greek heiress and beauty, but her money and looks had been lost before she died. Most valuable things were lost after they had been in the Severance family for any length of time. The beautiful Greek woman's handsome son had pale olive skin, a straight nose, full red lips under a miniature moustache like two inked finger-prints, raven hair sleekly brushed straight back from his square forehead, and immense eyes of unfathomable blackness. He was going to "the States" on some military mission, no one knew quite what, and so, although the war[...]"
