A Mature Faith (Louvain Theological & Pastoral Monographs) Daniel J. Louw

This series relates past thought from the history of Western theological traditions to areas of contemporary concern in fresh, innovative, and constructive ways. Designed for those with no formal theological training, these student-friendly volumes guide readers through core theological issues in a systematic and accessible way.

Volume 25 in the LTPM series develops a view of personhood that draws not only from the Christian perspective but also from the human sciences. Written for priests, ministers, and pastoral caregivers involved in counseling and spiritual direction, this study clearly shows the need for an integrative approach to pastoral care that takes seriously both spirituality and the human quest for meaning.
