A Miracle of Love Frances B Lancaster

We must all face the loss of someone dear at one time or another.in our lives. My son, Brent, did something which opened my heart and gave me strength to go on living when his dad and my husband of 53 years left this earthly experience. His watchful eye and caring heart knew our patterns of living, and before his return home 1000 miles away, he left surprises that reminded me that the good things of life can still be enjoyed. Perhaps this book will inspire you to become more watchful of those you love and you, too, can become an angel of hope and encouragement when times of darkness come.
