Faith that Works Leader Guide Anne Fortenberry

What does a person's faith look like if it's acted out in daily life? Our faith in God saves us; the Bible testifies to that. But what difference does that faith make in our lives? If works don't insure our salvation, what's the purpose of right Christian behavior? If we have transformed lives in Christ, what specific works represent an outgrowth of our belief? Anne Fortenberry tackles all these questions in her nine-week interactive Bible study, "Faith that Works." In a warmhearted, personal approach, Anne reveals fresh insights into the Book of James that will strengthen participants' faith, enrich their walk with the Lord, and challenge them to apply well-known scriptural principles. Participants in a "Faith that Works" small group will learn how to cope with trails and temptations, how to develop characteristics such as obedience, tongue control, wisdom, and trust in God, how to endure suffering, and how to restore wandering believers, among other topics. This leader guide accompanies the Faith that Works member book (ISBN 1-978-934749-49-4) and provides helps for those facilitating a "Faith that Works" group in weekly sessions.
