See You in the Dark: Two Decades of my Cinephilia in North Dakota Todd Ford

“See You in the Dark” is an anthology of Mr. Ford’s best film reviews from 1994 to 2014. They were originally published in a variety of periodicals including the "Open Forum," "River’s Edge," and "Prairie Independent" and the daily newspaper the "Bismarck Tribune." These reviews are interwoven with the story of Mr. Ford’s relationships with these publications and, as a former Southern California and Seattle boy, life in North Dakota in general; colorful anecdotes; and mentions of how his opinions about these films have evolved. This book is recommended for anyone interested in a ground-level view of a working film critic or anyone simply interested in a personal and insightful take on the world of cinema.
