The IBF Story: A Story of Sharing Christ Cross Culturally (Volume 1) Terry Cobban

The IBF Story A Story of Sharing Christ Cross Culturally Curiosity has an insatiable though unhurried appetite. People may be content with the way things are for years on end, then one day it is no longer enough. This is the story of a spiritual, and physical journey from the mountains of Alaska to the small green mountains of Seoul, Korea. It is the story of the beginning of IBF (International Believers' Fellowship) Christian English ministry. Terry Cobban's calling...to learn Korean, come to Korea, make Korean relationships, and begin an international ministry led him to the military, to Korea, back to the U.S., back to Korea, to Iraq, to Korea and now to the U.S. Take the journey with Pastor Cobban...and the members of IBF. As you move along the path may you discover the meaning of multi-cultural ministry, community, and living through your faith and talents for others that you encounter along the way. Terry Cobban –Author of the narrative Chaplain (CPT) Terry Cobban serves the U.S. Army and is now based in the state of Washington. He and his wife Su both graduated from Princeton Theological Seminary (PTS) with Master of Divinity degrees.
