Captured by the enemy, he'll come to love his captor. His heart will pay the price.

Caden lives in a separate world with rules that go back centuries. An omega werewolf, he has few choices but to live under the command of an alpha lord or face human brutality in the outside world. A rebel by heart, he wants nothing more than to be free.

When a neighboring alpha werewolf named Fletcher kills his alpha, he inherits Caden in the process. This new alpha is different—and attractive. Given the task to seduce Fletcher, Caden lets himself get too close.

He never intends to fall for him. He never expects to be freed. But he can't leave Fletcher behind when he's carrying his child. His heart, now captured, won't let him.

Together, they'll have to find a way to live freely with their newfound love.
