The Faith of Betty Scott Stam Elisabeth Alden Scott Stam

Among the hundreds of letters of sympathy received after the death of our dear ones, John and Betty, very many wrote especially of Betty's poems, and expressed the hope that they might be put out in book form. To assemble these for publication presented many difficulties, but gradually we have been able to collect more than eighty, written for the most part during eight busy student years, and reflecting in lighter vein as well as in more serious mood her love for nature and her deep heart experiences.
