Career Counseling for African Americans

Career Counseling for African Americans

This book is the first edited volume devoted exclusively to career counseling with African Americans. African Americans are now at parity with the graduation rates of White Americans, yet disparities in employment continue to abound. At the same time the job market is changing and in need of more highly qualified workers, society must begin to understand the career and employment needs of Black Americans if it is to more effectively utilize this available market resource.

Recent data indicates that stronger economies have a competitive edge if they have a more diverse workforce. More effective career counseling must be provided for African Americans so that they can become more thoroughly integrated in the world of work, thus creating stronger economies for society and more satisfying and challenging lives for this segment of the United States. Career Counselors need to be trained to effectively interact with African Americans. This volume begins to shed more light on just how to do that.

This book presents nine significant topics focusing on career counseling for African Americans:

- *basic issues and concepts;
- *career assessment;
- *career counseling with African Americans;
- *career counseling with dual career African American couples;
- *career transition issues;
- *affirmative career counseling with African American women;
- *career counseling in non-traditional career fields;
- *the impact of the glass ceiling on the career development of African Americans; and
- *future directions in career counseling theory, research, and practice with African Americans.
