Life has always been difficult for Daphne Edwards. Sexually and physically abused during the most tender years of her life by her own parents, removed from her home and put into the foster care system at age ten. Despite her reluctance to have romantic relationships with men, Daphne meets one that treats her like a princess and lavishes gifts and affection on her, making her feel beautiful, special and loved. But Evan comes with a temper, a violent temper that has Daphne afraid for her safety. Daphne is in a perpetual state of sheer panic while Evan's behavior grows more disturbing as their wedding date nears. Now Daphne is running for her life and heading towards a future that she's not certain of when unexpected circumstances rise to the surface. She must now fight to survive, rebuild her life and change everything that she's ever known.
