Alpha - XIII (Volume 1) Mr Keith Alexander Etherington

Logan Jaeger prefers to live his life in a low-key manner of monotony and routine. Escaping his own imagination and nightmare filled dreams, he tries to keep a logical handle on his life. An attractive girlfriend and a promising career which has just turned into a positive change for him. The job however triggers a far more complex scheme that has him sighted for assimilation or assassination by menacing forces and malevolent entities. Meeting Deriel and his squad of highly trained operatives, he finds himself pulled into a far more complex world of deceit and manipulation. Seeded in humanities own existence and being, he learns the true meaning of what it means to be human. Travelling around the world to other countries and cities, he finds himself travelling through space and time, as well as even alternate realities. Though his imagination and perceived notion of where legendary evil roots stem from, and mythological influence is born out of. A mere scratch on the surface of understanding, the knowledge of truth to be unveiled through horrors and adventure.
