The Photodrama of Creation Charles Taze Russell

NEW AND IMPROVED PRINTING! This book is a historic reprint of the original scenario book issued for distribution at the Photo Drama showings that toured the US and Canada in 1914. The original book was printed in magenta ink with half tone pictures. It was originally published in both hardcover and paperback. This paperback reprint is a careful reproduction with some important differences. The cover was carefully re-drawn tracing the original artwork from the printed cover. The pictures have been created by scanning and carefully retouching the original glass slides from the production. These glass slides had been hand painted and tinted for the original production. The original colors and details have been carefully preserved when possible, with scratches and cracks being electronically removed. With the exception of 3 glass slides which could not be located, all pictures in the book are reproductions of the genuine, original glass slides from the 1914 production, or frames captured from the original motion picture portions. The type has been re-set for readability, but not edited. This is a fascinating book, not just for its historical interest but for the sweeping explanation of God's Plan as set forth in the Scriptures. It starts with the Creation narrative in the book of Genesis and goes through to Revelation, explaining history as it sets forth the Plan of God. The original Photo Drama was presented as slides and moving pictures, synchronized with narration from audio records. It ran 8 hours in length, shown in four parts of 2 hours each. It was written and carefully produced by Pastor Charles Taze Russell and the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society in 1914. It was a ground breaking production for its day.
