Connelly's Flame Aliyah Burke

Dezarae Kerry had no time for men in her life. She was busy enough with her work, restoring old cars to their former glory. All that changed the wintry night she found a handsome Caucasian stranger along side the road and took him to her home. Ross Connelly didn't know who he was. The beautiful curvaceous ebony woman who had undressed him and put him in her bed didn't know who he was either. Struggling to regain his memory, Ross has a fight to hold onto the woman who had saved his life once that is accomplished. The fact he is a SEAL, his appalling ex-wife, a friendless and despondent child are a few of the obstacles they must overcome to be together. Dezarae tries to maintain her distance Ross is determined to make her understand that she is his heart, she is his soul. She is
