One of the undeniable facts is that cohabitation has become the fastest growing form of domestic life over the last two decades. Remarkably, some form of cohabitation precedes more than 70 percent of all marriages today. The world all over is waking up to the reality of cohabitation relationships. "Come we stay", "living together" or cohabiting has become so common that it is almost odd not to test-drive a partner before marriage. Today most young adults plan to marry one day and maybe soon; but for many, it seems to be taking forever! Yes, they have someone they dearly love but the person is not ready for that kind of commitment, not at the moment they want. Rather, most of those want to move and "Test Drive" first! However, the majority find themselves at a crossroad wondering on whether to move and try it out first or not. Inside this book is gathered information from people who are living together, planning to or those with practical experience that will, maybe answer your questions! It provides unique, much needed information that will benefit lives— thousands to millions of lives. In this book are voices of the proponents and opponents of the living together concept and a conclusive evaluation of these arguments. This book will enrich you with enough information to make an appropriate choice-whether to cohabit or not.
