Ancient Roman History: Timeline, Architecture, and Sports Albert Redfield

Are you interested in learning what our ancestors studied, built, and how they entertained themselves?

Do you find the internet to be an overwhelming place and want all the information compiled into one convenient location?

I have studied the Ancient Romans and have come to the conclusion that they are one of the most interesting pieces of history. They set the stage for what is modern day architecture, sports and their history can help us learn a great deal about ourselves today and how we got where we are. I highly recommend everyone becomes educated on our ancestors, because you know what they say... History always repeats itself.

What you'll learn inside:

- An in-depth timeline of the Roman History
- A great overview of the Romans as a civilization
- What they participated in for entertainment and sport
- How their amazing architecture was created and is still used today
- And much, MUCH more!

So what are you waiting for?
