Sarah would classify herself as an average girl that grew up in the small city of Watertown, in Upstate New York. As you read about what Sarah went through in her childhood years, you will realize that Sarah is anything but "average".

Sarah's childhood memories are riddled with such visions as a young boy tied to a chair, watching her father beat her mother, the list goes on and on from physical abuse to sexual abuse, there are no limits to how far the predators in Sarah's life will go.

Experience the pain of child abuse and child sexual abuse through Sarah's eyes, watch as she demonstrates the strength to fight, cry with her as she feels defeated and wants to give up and rejoice, for in the end she was able to triumph.
