By Arthur Wm. Waters, F.G.S. From the author. Papers Read. On The Fossil Flora Of The Coal Deposits Of Australia. By The Rev. J. E. Tenison-Woods, F.G.S., F.L.S., Vice-President Linnean Society, New South Wales. In the month of August 1880 a paper was read before the Royal Society of New South Wales from Dr. O. Feistmantel, on the fossil flora of Eastern Australia and Tasmania. This essay comprised a most valuable series of observations on all that was known on the subject of our Australian coal plants, for though it only professed to deal with those of eastern colonies, it included the paleontological flora of Victoria as well. It was a brief epitome of all that was then known of our fossil flora. Dr. Feistmantel, however, laboured under the disadvantage of having only the Scimens collected from a comparatively restricted area and numerically few. Had he been able to visit the fields from which the specimens were taken he would have observed that the flora of each particular locality included a much larger number of species than were contained in his lists. He states that his observations were founded on a collection forwarded to him in 1876 by the late Rev. W....
