Forgive Me Father... For my Sins (Volume 1) Richard O'Dette

Travis Booker grew up in the idyllic town of Terrington, South Carolina. He's a parishioner at Holy Mother of Charity where his pastor, Fr. Matthew J. Colt, preaches love and tolerance toward all people - which doesn't set too well with Travis's conservative and homophobic mother. Time and maturity has made the young man realize that his desires are solely for the touch and love of another man. His lustful affections are drawn to the handsome pastor who soon confesses his own urges. A steamy encounter in the church sacristy ignites the beginning of an epic romance between the two men. Travis and Matthew find themselves facing great tests of love, loyalty, and faith as they embark on this smoldering affair of unbridled passion. Problems soon arise. The ambitious and cruel-hearted Cardinal Barnet knows of the affair and tries to ensure that the archaic image of the Catholic Church remains sanctified. And in spite of everything that has transpired, Travis and Matthew remain committed to the forbidden love they share with one another... but will it always be this way? Mature Readers Only: Forgive Me Father... For my Sins contains adult-language to describe the graphic sexual acts between certain characters throughout the course of the story.
