Maggie's Mission (Love and War Book 2) Rachel Muller

A buried vow and a broken past meet face to face on enemy territory...

Lieutenant Maggie Johnson has overcome many obstacles in her life, including her parents' disapproval of her enlistment in the Army Nurse Corps and the sudden death of her GI boyfriend, Danny Russo. A sudden blow that forced her to leave behind a promise once made. But Germany introduces more hurdles that hinder her life. Like Army nurse lieutenant, Peggy Blizzard—a woman as cold as her name.

While trying to avoid a war breaking out within her own barracks, Maggie pushes through Germany's harsh winter, and Peggy's cold shoulder, and aims to do her job—saving lives. But when tragedy strikes the field hospital, it's Maggie's life that needs saving instead.

Maggie's harrowing rescue will haunt her for months to come when a ruggedly handsome soldier comes to her aid and resembles the face of a man she once loved . . . a man who is dead.

Is war playing mind games with Maggie, or is she facing the ghosts of her past?
