Jeff Davidson

When Jeff Davidson became the father of a son with profound special needs, he was convinced that God had wrecked his life and given him an enormous burden. Over time, Jeff began to realize that God had given him an incredible gift and blessing. He began to see that God takes our most difficult struggles, and our deepest pains, and uses them to teach us, inspire us, and reveal Himself to us in ways we could never imagine any other way. This book is for anyone struggling to find their purpose, their hope, and their victory over their most difficult circumstances. This book challenges the reader to gain a whole new perspective on their journey through life, and the struggles they face.
