Pagans Praying, a Book of Pictorial Verse Roy A. Keech

In PAGANS PRAYING, Roy A. Keech has caught the spirit of the American Indian as few writers have succeeded in doing. With reverence & with word beauty, he describes the ceremonials, the rituals and rhythm so dominant in the life of the Indian. He has captures what many others have failed to comprehend, the repetition which is characteristic of the Indian's songs, his dances, rituals, art, jewelry, weaving, beadwork, pottery, & speech. He has translated into words the majestic monotony of that repetition. " This book has 95 pages and is illustrated throughout. The title page has a hand-tinted picture representing an eagle.
